

HOUSE FALL GAMES 2011

September 26, 2011

Dear Parents,

On Thursday, October 6, the secondary program is having its inaugural House Fall Games! We will travel to Camp Manatawny in Douglasville for a day of House competition, strategy games, and fun! This year's competition theme is "Medieval" and will feature a Medieval Banquet and "Jousting" Entertainment! In the morning, each House will compete against the clock to complete teamwork/ strategy games. In the afternoon, Houses will compete against each other in "Medieval" Games. Who will win the first-ever House Fall games?

To attend, your child must return the permission slip below and $10 to his/her House Dean by Friday morning, September 30, 2011.

COST/ WHAT TO BRING/WHAT TO WEAR:

- Weather permitting, we will eat our Medieval Feast "Family Style" at tables on the lawn while we root on our House Knight in the Joust.
- Middle-School students are to bring a drink (2 liter bottles preferred) to share with their House and High-School students are to bring a desert. Cider and fall pies are extra welcome! ☺
- Student's should watch the weather and dress appropriately. Bring clothes for both warm and cool weather. Students should wear House Colors to support their House!!

TRANSPORTATION

Transportation to and from these events will be via school vans and bus. Students going via school vehicle must report to the school building by 7:50 a.m. Parents are encouraged to drop off students at Camp Manatawny if they wish, but no earlier than 8:00 a.m. Students may drive themselves, but they are to arrive no earlier than 8:00 a.m.(The actual schedule begins at 8:30 a.m.) All students will return to school for pick-up and busses at 3:00 p.m.
